The Pavilion offers a wide range of services to area seniors and Osborn residents, including:

- Short-term Rehabilitation - Inpatient occupational, physical and speech therapists foster independence by assisting residents to recovering as quickly and completely as possible from such events as joint replacement surgery, injury, stroke or illness.
- Long-term Nursing Care - Registered Nurses and other licensed nursing personnel provide comprehensive long-term skilled care and round-the-clock monitoring.
- Respite Care - A temporary stay at The Osborn Pavilion offers care and support, while a caregiver attends to other responsibilities or enjoys some time away. Services are customized to specific needs and preferences, so residents feel comfortably at home during their stay.
- Hospice - The Osborn's interdisciplinary team works together to ensure the comfort of residents and family members in a home-like setting, as well as responsive, supportive care.
- Outpatient Rehabilitation - Physical, occupational and speech therapy are also available following discharge on an outpatient basis. Members of the community can also utilize these services.

The Pavilion includes a medical suite with specialty examination rooms, such as ophthalmology, podiatry and dentistry. In addition, the rehabilitation clinic is equipped and professionally staffed for speech, occupational and physical therapies.

The Highest Quality of Life

The Pavilion features 84 private rooms on two floors, uniquely clustered in groups of seven or eight. This design approach helps to create a warm sense of neighborhood for residents and their guests. Family and friends are welcome to visit 24 hours a day.

Our Dining Services Staff offers nutritious, restaurant-style menu selections in an elegant dining room overlooking The Betty Neagle Perennial Garden.

The Osborn Pavilion also offers a number of programs and amenities to maximize each resident's quality of life through recreational activities and social interaction. These include:
